

Peregrine and Gecko's Thailand Update as at 18 May 2010

Peregrine & Gecko's continue to run tours to Thailand, having changed our hotel used in Bangkok to one well away from the rally sites and with a clear run from the airport.

We are in constant communication with local Thai operators based in Bangkok to ensure passenger safety.

If changes in the situation occur we will react accordingly.

Passengers can defer or change their trips without penalty, however cancellation fees will apply for anyone cancelling at this stage.
