

Club Med Phuket – Update as at 19 May 2010

Following the recent Red Shirt movement in Thailand, Club Med Asia Pacific would like to update travellers on the situation and reassure its clients that Phuket remains a safe holiday destination.

Bangkok & Phuket International Airports are still operating normally, and tourists are still arriving as expected for vacation purposes.

At the present time, Club Med Phuket Resort is doing its utmost to avoid sending guests to Bangkok.

In the interest of our guests' safety and security, all excursions and shopping activities to Bangkok have been suspended until further notice as a precautionary measure.

The Club Med Phuket Resort operations team has been mobilized, and remains at guests' disposal.
