

Tucan Travel: Thailand safety update – 17 May 2010

The safety of our clients and staff is our highest priority. Due to a recent escalation of violence near the protest area in Bangkok, this weekend we took steps to move groups out of the city earlier than scheduled as a precautionary measure. There are currently no Tucan Travel groups in Bangkok and all clients and staff are safe and well.

Our staff continue to monitor the situation in Bangkok closely both on the ground and from our offices in London and Sydney. At the moment future tour departures are unaffected. We are in frequent contact with our groups in South East Asia and we directly and regularly update tour leaders with the latest information as it comes to hand.