TERMS & CONDITIONS OF ALLIED MEMBERSHIP

- The granting by AFTA of Allied Membership does NOT permit any Allied Member to represent in any manner, that AFTA endorse or have reviewed any product or service offered by you.
- A monthly list of all ATAS accredited entities is provided to Allied Members. The information provided represents the general business details and the contact person for each accredited entity. This information is provided to you to enable your businesses to identify ATAS Accredited entities for the purposes of conducting business through a contract/MOU or other business arrangement between your business and an ATAS accredited entity.
- AFTA have deemed the disclosure of this personal information as a valid exception as described by APP 7.2 of the Australian Privacy Principles.
- All Allied Members must ensure strict compliance with the Australian Privacy Principles in particular regarding Direct Marketing and ensure an 'opt out' feature is made available in relation to any marketing of any good or service to ATAS accredited agents.
- Non-compliance with any Australian law or clause of these terms or conditions will result in cancellation of the Allied Membership at the discretion of the CEO of AFTA.
